FRIDAY, JUNE 7.

Disheartened.

It may readily be conceived that the attorneys for the prosecution in their efforts to convict the Hargises and Callahan of complicity in the Breathitt orgies of assassination and terror are disheartened. Representing the cause of law and justice, they repeatedly have conducted an admirable and determined fight for their side against conditions that are revolting to friends of law and believers in integrity of courts. Their task was one requiring courage, for they had to face the murder syndicate in its own territory. It required shrewdness, for against them were arrayed conscienceless cliques, who were not loath to stoop to devices more cunning than commendable. It required tenacity, for the defendants have proved themselves elusive. It demanded an abiding faith in the ultimate triumph of justice, for they saw operations of power in high places which must have been sufficient to make them question the chances of justice for the present.

The "ultimate triumph" of justice seems greatly delayed. The on for years and the victims lie rotting in their graves, yet, except for the imprisoning of Curt Jett, the leading spirits are still to pay the penalty of the crime. The conspirators yet prevail. The prosecuting lawyers have won the admiration of the best elements of citizenship by their superb activities against the defendants in the Breathitt cases—not only admiration, but gratitude. That they were opposed by masters of a vicious situation in official quarters was not their fault, but their misfortune, and it was the misfortune of outraged champions of law and high-minded behavior in the agents of law.

In Sandy Hook, so the Courier-Journal correspondent on the scene writes, sentiment favors the Hargis crowd. Of course. That is why the Hargis crowd thought Sandy Hook would be a good place for the trial. It is because of the situation they find in Sandy Hook—this isolated town, tucked away in the remote heart of the mountains—that the prosecuting lawyers doubt the advisability of proceeding to the trial. Apparently they feel a trial under the circumstances would be futile, if not farcical. If they are disheartened, no wonder.

But a futile, farcical trial in Sandy Hook could be no worse, except in degree, than other futile, farcical trials, which have gone before. Besides, every such trial helps to awaken the people of Kentucky to the dangerous and degraded state of affairs which is eating out decency in the official structure of the State.—Courier-Journal.

Henry Fields, of Avawam, was here on business Wednesday.

R. L. Howard, who moved to Muscogee, I. T., last winter, is here attending court.

Sylvester Howard and wife, of Mountain, were visiting Mrs. Howard's parents, Judge and Mrs. W. H. Blanton during the week.

Saturday, June 15th, is the day set for the mass meeting to select delegates to attend the Louisville convention to nominate candidates for the State offices.

NOT ACCEPTABLE

To the Prosecution is Daugherty.

Commonwealth's Attorney John M. Waugh, of Grayson, who will conduct the prosecution of James Hargis and others, charged with the murder of Dr. B. D. Cox, when the cases are called for trial at Sandy Hook, in July, held a conference with Attorneys Byrd and Joutett in Winchester last Saturday relative to the election of Judge John A. Daugherty as presiding Judge.

T. P. Cardwell, Jr., of Jackson, brother-in-law of the murdered man, who has labored for several years securing evidence against the men he believes guilty of procuring the assassination, was also present at the conference, to discuss with the attorneys the election of Judge Daugherty, and also the advisability of trying the accused men in Elliott county.

At the conclusion of the conference Mr. Waugh addressed a letter to Gov. Beckham, in which

JETT IN DUNGEON

Refuses to Perform Tasks and is Punished.

Curt Jett, is giving his keepers at the Kentucky penitentiary considerable trouble these days. For failure to make his task he has been severely whipped, and that failing to accomplish the desired result, he has been placed in the prison dungeon in solitary confinement. Jett has been a good prisoner for months up to a few weeks ago. He is said to be laboring under the impression that he is being imposed upon and discriminated against in comparison with some other noted murder prisoners of the institution and has complained that he is given a much heavier task than he is capable of performing.

he asked the Chief Executive not to issue a commission to Judge Daugherty, on the ground that the election was not suitable to the counsel associated in the prosecution.

The names of Judge M. C. Saufley, of Standford; Judge W. B. Moody, of Eminence, and Judge Botts, of Owenton, were suggested by Attorney Waugh as being acceptable to the prosecution and the Governor was asked to communicate with one or more of these jurists to ascertain if they would accept the appointment.

During the conference Attorney Waugh secured a copy of the testimony of the Commonwealth witnesses used in the trials of Jim Hargis and Bill Britton at Lexington most of which will also be used against Hargis for the Cox murder and the prosecution will become thoroughly acquainted with the facts in the case and be ready to enter into the trial in July.

Thought Dominated by Law.
Law means certain conditions brought about in a certain way. It means that nothing transpires without a cause. It means system, order, and the system and order of the whole creation is maintained in the law of cause and effect.

Mode of Action—The law is not in any sense a force or potency, but only marks a definite order in which the potency will be manifested. The potency produces the effect, and the law is that a certain potency acting upon a particular object produces a certain effect. Hence, there must be a potency to act, an object to be acted upon, and an effect to be produced.

The potency must possess an intelligence capable of forming a design as to the effect to be produced and the method by which the desired effect must be produced. In other words there must be a motive power. JUDGE PATRICK.

ley county, being a son of the late Major Hampton of that county. He was twice married, his first wife, a Miss Caywood, having died some years ago. His second wife, who was Mrs. Sarah Maloney, survives him.

Shortly after Judge Hampton's first marriage he settled in Lee county on a fine farm on the Middle Fork, near where Monica now is, and lived there for many years. Afterward he moved to Daysborough, in Wolfe county, where he lived a number of years, and later to Frozen, Breathitt county, where he lived until the death of his first wife, about seven years ago. Since his second marriage he has resided in Lee county.

Judge Hampton was a stalwart Democrat and was county judge of Lee county many years ago. He was always prominent in politics. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Albert, living in Kansas, and John of Garrard county, four daughters, Mrs. A. C. Boling, of Laurel county, Mrs. Ed Millon, of Madison county and Misses Mattie and Rebecca Hampton, of Garrard county. Another son, W. A. Hampton, died some years ago. We sympathize with the relatives in their bereavement.—Beattyville Enterprise.

MATT SLOAN KILLED ESCAPES HIS GUARDS

By Date Stricklin at Lee City Last Saturday.

Matt Sloan, who was released from the penitentiary at Frankfort, (being let out on parole,) where he had served one year for shooting "Tricky Tom Tharp," was shot and instantly killed by Peter Stricklin at Lee City, last Saturday. Sloan ran away with Stricklin's sister, claiming to be married to her. Upon his return he went to Stricklin's house while drunk and used all kinds of loud and boisterous and insulting language, when Stricklin shot him six times.

Sloan was a noted gambler and a desperate character. He was in a fight at Campton a few years ago and was shot four times, from which he recovered. About a year ago Sloan was taken from the penitentiary to Cythiana to testify in a case sent from Breathitt county on a charge of venue. While there waiting for a train, handcuffed, he attacked Sam Jett, and would have injured Jett had not the latter kicked him in the face, knocking him down and out. Stricklin was acquitted at his examining trial at Campton.

The Ancient Art Of Helping Yourself.

Ever go to a Sunday school picnic when you were a boy? Course you did.

Remember how all the women folks used to spread the tablecloths end to end on the grass, then dump 'em thick with the best eatables you ever ate? My! Fried chicken 'bout every two foot, with roll jelly cake in between.

Well, yes! Recollect how the Superintendent would stick his handkerchief under his collar and say cheerfully: "Now all help yourself!"

Then everybody fell to and helped himself. If you were a timid boy and held back till all the chickens were gobbled up, you regretted it—you regret it still. You didn't help yourself, and nobody else helped you.

Remember that picnic when the gang of fellows from the city happened along and lit into the fried fowl? City chaps are always hungry. They helped themselves, and there wasn't anything left for the town boys but the bones.

Life is a picnic. Not a Sunday school picnic—not exactlv. But it's a picnic dinner all the same. The feast is spread for you. Everybody help himself now!

SUPPOSE YOU'RE A MERCHANT IN THIS TOWN. THERE'S FRIED CHICKEN AND ROLL JELLY CAKE ALL AROUND YOU, BUT YOU LET THE CITY CROWD COME IN AND SNATCH IT RIGHT FROM UNDER YOUR NOSE. ALL YOU GET IS THE BONES AND SCRAPS.

The city fellows are helping themselves. They reach out long fingers—the mail order monthly and the price catalogue—and pick up the choice bits. Why don't you try a few fingers of advertising in your local paper, dive in ahead of the gang from outside, get there first and help yourself to the chicken? "Now all help yourself!"

Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. Jackson Drug Co.

Mrs. C. T. Stump was visiting in Lexington last week.

M. E. Shackelford took a part in the commencement exercises at Hazel Green last week.

James Shoemaker has got to be a regular visitor at J. R. Gentry's most every Sunday evening.

Rev. J. H. Hieronymous on the third Sunday in last month, at the M. E. church here, preached to one of the largest congregations that ever assembled in that house.

Poor old Hovermale, We used to know you, and thought pretty well of you, too, but it seems from Bro. Sewell's say so you stuck your bill in the wrong dish that time, just as we both used to do.

The continued wet weather is making the weeds grow, as well as the corn. We had water in abundance last Saturday evening and the farmers living on the river and creeks were damaged considerably.

Misses Sarah and Estella Adams, of Torrent, and Mrs. Deamia

Stump, of this place, were shown some of the mysteries connected with the Order of the Daughters of America on last Saturday at Green Valley Council, regardless of the hard rain that fell.

We are still for G. D. Hieronymous for State Senator from this district. Let's nominate him, anyhow; he is a good, clean man; knows nothing about grafting and I don't think he would try to learn the art. He knows how to do straight business, and that is the kind of a man the Republicans need this year. So come, Coursey, and consent to make the race for us. THE RANGER.

Badly Mixed Up.
Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed to cure blood poison weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold by Jackson Drug Co., price 50c.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formation is a veritable wonderland. At Mount City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Glapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death, having coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Olapp "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great Medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." "Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles. Sold by Jackson Drug Co. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

Sensible School Directors.

The subdirectors of a nearby township have taken a long step in the solution of the vexed problem of a scarcity of teachers for the rural schools by raising wages from $20 per month for autumn and spring terms and $32 for winter terms to a uniform level of $35. These directors are to be commended for their good sense and discrimination. They realize that the cost of living has been steadily increasing during a number of years past, while under the most favorable conditions the country schoolman can lay by only a small portion of her earnings. Then, too, their action is to be commended because they believe that their children are worthy of as good instruction as their farm animals are of proper care and rationing. The scarcity of teachers over the country is going to result in similar action by many other school directors.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how intractable or low obstinate that will be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

Torn Books.

In mending the torn leaves of books a thin waxed paper, such as comes in cracker or biscuit boxes, may be used and fastened with library paste. The paper being transparent may be used over the entire page if necessary, as the print easily shows through.

NEW YORK FASHIONS

Pattern for Five Gored Petticoat Designed by May Manton—No. 5619.

5619 Five Gored Petticoat, 29 to 33 waist.

The five gored petticoat is perhaps the best of all for general use. Here is one that can be either gathered or laid in inverted plaits at the back and that is adapted alike to the lingerie materials, to silk and to muslin and to all skirtings. In the illustration, however, white cambric is trimmed with an embroidered flounce and with a band of Valenciennes lace insertion. The full gathered flounce means abundant and satisfactory flare at the lower edge, while at the same time the skirt is so simple that it can quite easily and readily be laundered.

The skirt is cut in five gores, with a gathered flounce that is arranged over the lower edge. The upper edge can be either underfaced or joined to a belt.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 3 1/2 yards 21 or 24 yards 26 inches wide, with 4 1/2 yards of embroidery 10 inches wide to make as illustrated, or 2 yards of additional material 21 or 24 yards 26 inches wide for the flounce if plain material is used and 2 1/2 yards of banding.

Sizes for a 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inch waist.

Etiquette in Sweden.

In Sweden if you address the poorest person on the street you must lift your hat. The same courtesy is insisted upon if you pass a lady on a stairway. To enter a reading room or a bank with one's hat on is regarded as impolite.

A man who is in perfect health, so can do an honest day's work when necessary, has much for which he should be thankful. Mr. L. C. Rodgers, of Branchton, Pa., writes that he was not only unable to work, but he couldn't stoop over to tie his own shoes. Six bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made a new man of him. He says, "Success to Foley's Kidney Cure." Jackson Drug Co.

How Odd!

The English language seems to be quite queer at times, for when a jovial friend goes on a spree we say, "He's off again."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A week's treatment for 25c. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

Happiness.

How happiness goes flouting by. As gaily as a butterfly. And when we catch the lovely thing. Alas, it has a broken wing!—New York Life.

Will Cure Consumption.

A. A. Herron, Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Kidney Cure cured me of my trouble. I know that it has cured consumption be the first stages." You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. Jackson Drug Co.

The Human Voice.

There are only nine different tones in the human voice, but there are 17,592,186,044,415 different sounds.

A Choice of Language.

Mme. de Stael said, "If I were to write, I should write in the copious English, think in the philosophic German, converse in the gay French, sing in the beautiful Spanish and make love in the sweet Italian."

A Lesson in Health

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. Jackson Drug Co.

Gamy Mackerel.

It is not generally known to amateur fishermen that the common mackerel of commerce is a game fish and when at all hungry will take the fly and fight as pluckily as the brook trout. They have to be played skillfully, as their mouths are very tender, but the hooking and successful landing of a No. 1 mackerel, which often weighs two or three pounds, with a rod and reel are worthy of the most skillful fisherman.

If you will make inquiry it will be a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney or bladder troubles in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure. It never disappoints. Jackson Drug Co.

A Matter of Will.
You may fall a lawyer lazy. And he may be so until he gets a will o' work with—Then he works with a will.—Detroit Tribune.
